

SPRING COMMENCEMENT 2021

CELEBRATING
THE GRADUATING CLASS

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

To the Class of 2021,

Congratulations on your graduation from Ohio University! You are one of the fortunate who has received the nation's highest return on experience. You are now and forever, OHIO.

The Class of 2021 has faced numerous challenges, as the COVID-19 global pandemic transformed all of our lives. I want to thank you for boldly adapting to historic changes and continuing to learn together, work together and support one another. You have shown great perseverance, strength, and spirit, and I am very proud of you.

Your time at Ohio University prepared you for your future, and now you and your classmates are beginning your careers, advancing in new academic programs, or taking on other challenges. I want you to know, though, that your transformation is not yet complete. For a true education does not end with a diploma; it continues throughout every day of your life. I encourage you to take the lessons you have learned at Ohio University and expand upon them in the years to come.

As you have already learned, the OHIO alumni network is a vast enterprise—accomplished in their respectable professions, loyal to their alma mater, and always willing to help a fellow Bobcat land that next job or find an apartment/realtor in a new city. I urge you to seek out your nearest alumni chapter or a special interest society of alumni and friends, to reach out through social media (#ohioalumni), and to stay connected to Ohio University.

Each Ohio University graduate adds a new chapter in a 217-year tradition of academic excellence, and we are thankful for all that you have contributed to our cherished University community. We wish you the very best and look forward to the many distinguished successes that lie ahead of you in the years to come, as your individual talents and knowledge help to make our world a better place.

Best wishes,

ACADEMIC Heraldry

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn today in these Commencement Exercises are patterned after the attire of monks and students in the Middle Ages. Those who have earned bachelor's degrees wear gowns with a semi-stiff yoke, long pleated front, intricate shirring across the shoulders and back, and long, pointed sleeves. The holder of a master's degree wears a similar gown, with long or short oblong sleeves that hang down in the traditional manner and open at the wrist.

Those possessing the doctoral degree wear gowns with broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color of the distinctive field of learning represented by the degree. Most of the color and meaning of the costume is found in the hoods. These are silk-lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. As can readily be observed, the official colors of Ohio University are green and white. The border of the hood is velvet and its color signifies the field of learning to which the degree pertains:

Accountancy	Drab	Humanities	White
Anthropology	Gold	Journalism	Crimson
Arts	White	Literature	White
Auditory	Blue	Medicine	Hunter Green
Biochemistry	Gold	Music	Pink
Business	Drab	Nursing	Apricot
Civil Engineering.	Orange	Philosophy	Ph.D. Blue
Communication Sciences.	Maroon Silver	Physical Education	Sage Green
Counseling and Guidance.	Light Blue	Physical Therapy	Teal
Education	Light Blue	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Engineering	Orange	Public Health	Salmon
English	White	Physics	Gold
Fine Arts	Brown	Science	Gold
History	White	Social Work	Citron
Human and Consumer Sciences.	Maroon

THE SEAL of Office

Worn by the president at official Ohio University functions, the Seal of Office also was designed by the late Professor Klahn. Fabricated of silver and bronze, the primary medallion features a silhouette of Cutler Hall, the date of Ohio University's founding (1804), and the words, "Ohio's First University." The secondary medallion, at the back of the chain, is the University seal. Smaller medallions, replicas of the two center portions of the University seal, are interspersed alternately with the chain's links. The Seal of Office was created for the inauguration of President Emeritus Robert Glidden in 1994 and will be passed on to future presidents of Ohio University.

HONOR Cords

Undergraduates who are graduating with honors are wearing honor cords. Those who are graduating with honor, or cum laude (accumulative grade point average of 3.5 to 3.749), are wearing bronze cords; those graduating with high honor, or magna cum laude (3.75 to 3.899), are wearing silver cords; and those graduating with highest honor, or summa cum laude (3.9 to 4.0), are wearing gold cords.

Students who graduate with honor must have completed 30 semester hours of coursework with letter grades in residence at Ohio University and must be completing a bachelor's degree. Graduation with honor does not apply to recipients of associate's or graduate degrees.

A special notation appears on the diploma and in the Commencement program for students who are graduating with honors.

GRADUATE Speaker

SUSAN WILLIAMS

Susan Williams, Ph.D., is a professor of anatomy in Ohio University's Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine and the recipient of the 2020 Outstanding Graduate Faculty Award. Established in 1972, the Outstanding Graduate Faculty Award recognizes an OHIO professor who has demonstrated exemplary performance as an instructor, researcher, and faculty member.

Dr. Williams' research studies sensorimotor integration in the oral cavity and the physiology and biomechanics of chewing and swallowing. She has received numerous honors for her work including the 2013 Distinguished Osteopathic Commitment Teaching Awards for both Outstanding Basic Science Faculty and Outstanding Research Mentor, and the 2009 Dean's Standard of Excellence Award. Dr. Williams earned her Ph.D. in Biological Anthropology and Anatomy from Duke University and her B.A. in Anthropology and Spanish from Bryn Mawr College.

UNDERGRADUATE Speaker

LEANNE FORD

Leanne Ford is an American interior designer from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and a 2003 Ohio University graduate. Ford, who earned a bachelor's degree in specialized studies, gained national attention for the 1907 schoolhouse turned home that she restored and designed in her hometown. It was this first personal project where she established the "white on white" signature aesthetic she's now known for. Featured in Country Living magazine, the house launched her career as an interior designer, leading to projects in Pennsylvania, New York, and Los Angeles, each a reflection of her modern yet lived-in aesthetic.

Ford's easy vibe and personal style match the stylish yet approachable spaces she creates and curates. Her work has been featured in Architectural Digest, Country Living, Domino, GQ, Lonny, Elle Decor, Martha Stewart, Better Homes and Gardens, Redbook, MyDomaine, Refinery 29, the New York Times, and more. In addition, her bathroom design has been featured on the cover of Bright Bazaar's latest interiors book, Dream Decor. She is currently the star, along with her brother and contractor Steve Ford, of Home Again with the Fords on HGTV and previously Restored by the Fords, which follows the siblings as they turn some of Pittsburgh's most dated structures into magazine-worthy homes.

OHIO UNIVERSITY Profile

UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Ohio University strives to be the best student-centered, transformative learning community in America, where students realize their promise, faculty advance knowledge, staff achieve excellence, and alumni become global leaders. OHIO holds as its central purpose the intellectual and personal development of its students and is committed to fostering, embracing, and celebrating diversity in all its forms. Our Athens Campus offers students a residential learning experience in one of the nation's most picturesque academic settings. Additional campuses and centers serve students across the state, and online programs further advance the University's commitment to providing educational access and opportunity. Ohio University's graduates leave prepared to achieve their personal and professional goals. They are the promise of Ohio University, and the Ohio University family is very proud of their achievements.

HONORS Information

LATIN HONORS

Students who graduate with honor must have completed 24 semester hours of coursework with letter grades in residence at Ohio University and must have completed a bachelor's degree. Graduation with honor does not apply to recipients of associate or graduate degrees. Those that graduated with honor (cum laude) have an accumulative grade point average of 3.5 to 3.749%, those that graduated with high honor (magna cum laude) have an accumulative grade point average of 3.75 to 3.89%, and those that graduated with highest honor (summa cum laude) have an accumulative grade point average of 3.9 to 4.0%.

A special notation appears on the diploma and in the commencement program for students who graduated with honors.

OHIO HONORS

The OHIO Honors Program expands on traditional honors education by adding a focus on experiential learning. OHIO Honors students take on challenging coursework throughout their undergraduate experience, but also apply their learning in the real world through internships, partnerships with community organizations, hands-on research, and other co-curricular activities. Students complete an average of two honors experiences per semester, about half in the classroom and half in other settings where they can apply their learning to different contexts. Designed to complement any major, the program connects students with fellow scholars across the university to explore ideas and issues from a wide range of perspectives.

Undergraduates who are graduating with OHIO Honors appear with a special notation on their diploma and in the Commencement program. Students who have completed 6-11 honors experiences receive OHIO Honors designation. Students who have completed 12 or more experiences receive OHIO High Honors designation.

Alma Mater, Ohio

When e'er we take our book of mem'ries
And scan its pages through and through
We'll find no days that glow so brightly
As those we spent at old O.U.
Within our Alma Mater's portals
We meet her children hand to hand
And when there comes the day of parting,
Still firm and loyal we will stand

Alma Mater, Ohio,
"Alma Mater, brave and fair!
Alma Mater, we hail thee,
For we own thy kindly care.

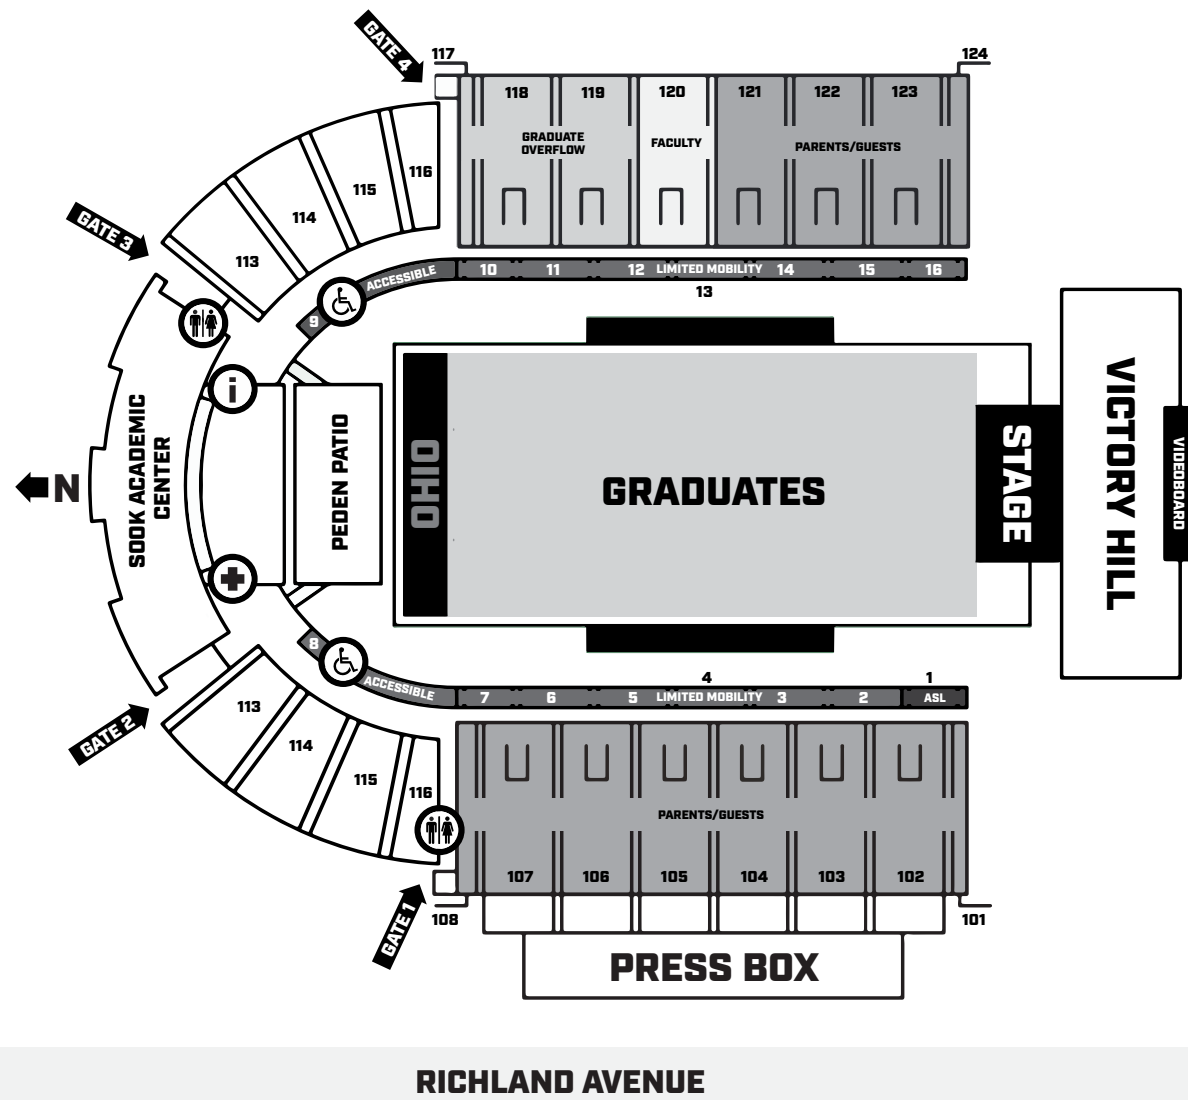

Alma Mater, Ohio,
When we read thy story o'er,
We revere thee and cheer thee
As we sing thy praise once more.

Our Alma Mater calls us ever,
And love of country has its claim,
The one but makes us prize the other,
And thus we cherish both the same.
When Alma Mater sends us forward,
And in her name we stand in line,
Then we will serve the nation better,
For having gathered at her shrine.

Words and music by Kenneth S. Clark.

*Written in 1915 and awarded first prize in the Alma Mater
Song Contest conducted by Edwin W. Chubb, Dean,
College of Liberal Arts.*
